Letter from Mrs. Mills to Reverend Hall,
taken from the New York Times of October 18, 1922.

"Dearest, dearest boy of mine, good morning!

"What joy and peace is ours today. And strength.
How gracious God is to privilege us to know this most joyous greatest blessing.

"Precious true heart, I will write this afternoon
when I will have more time.

"I am on my knees, darling, looking up at my noble man, worshipping, adoring.

"Wonder of wonders-that I love you even more than yesterday-more fragrant, this love of ours."
